The People of the United States Give Aid Freely.

NEW YORK CONTRIBUTES $73 703

Other Cities Give in Proportion, and the Funds are Constantly Growing—The Assistance Sadly Needed by Charleston

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—At a meeting of the Charleston relief committee at the chamber of commerce to-day Mr Clyde of the Clyde Charleston line reported that the captain of the Delaware, who was an eye witness to the scenes of suffering and misery during the first four days of the earthquake at Charleston described the misery as touching in the extreme. The captain said that but one half the particulars had been told. A general account had been published but it did not state the ways in which the people suffered especially in that the earthquake struck at all [illegible] people well to do having plenty of stores and supplies on hand were cut off from their kitchens and cellars by the danger attending entrance into the dwellings, hence [illegible] were delicately nurtured people without food [illegible] forced to remain out exposed to the [illegible] night air.

For the four days that the Delaware lay in the port the captain had his ship full every night of sufferers. He [illegible] the [illegible] the great need now was money to buy supplies of food.

The central committee reported that the [illegible] [illegible] had notified them there was an [illegible] of condensed canvas on hand in the department which would be at the disposal of the committee. The mayor of Charleston will be [illegible] of this fact. Mr A M Moore was added to the sub-committee on Charleston sufferers and made chairman. Additional subscriptions of $ 612 were reported, making a total amount [illegible]

THE DREAM OF SECURITY DISPELLED

CHARLESTON, Sept 9.—The city is quiet to-day though the dream of absolute immunity from danger was rudely dispelled by a smart but innocuous shock of earthquake between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning. Shelter has been pretty well provided for all the homeless but it is expected the rains will cause much suffering. Rations are being [illegible] to all persons who are recommended by any reputable persons known to the relief committee. Charleston will also furnish rations to the destitute persons at Summerville and Mount Pleasant. There are rumors that the negroes will flock in soon in the hopes of living in idleness and that the cotton fields and truck farms will be deserted, but this is not likely to last if it begins as great pains are taken to prevent loafers from taking advantage of the distribution of food by the relief committee. The board of engineers are at work. They find that the parapet of the western portion of the custom house is seriously damaged and its repair will involve considerable expense. The building is safe and has sustained no great damage. The postoffice is seriously damaged.

GENEROSITY OF EASTERN CITIES

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—Mayor Courtenay of Charleston telegraphs Dr Andrew Simonds, president of the First National bank of Charleston (who is now in this city) that in order to shelter the homeless people before cold weather sets in from $ 60 000 to $100 000 are immediately required. The mayor estimates the total damage to property by the earthquake at from five to six millions. The produce exchange's Charleston fund amounts to $ 18[illegible], the stock exchange fund to $12,800 and the cotton exchange $64[illegible]. The fund at Boston amounts to $ 0 000 at Buffalo $4000 and in other cities lesser amounts.

THE YACHT RACE.

Fine Prospects, but the Wind Leaves the Boats at Sea

SANDY HOOK, Sept 9.—Shortly after daybreak there was unusual activity on board the yachts. On the sailing craft mainsails were set while the thick black smoke that rolled from the stacks of the steam yachts showed that they were preparing for the work of the day. All of the great throng of people that had filled the verandas of the hotels along the Narrows on the occasion of the first race and those who had stationed themselves along the Long Island or Jersey shores or perched upon the walls and breastworks of the two big forts at the entrance to the upper bay appeared to have been lifted in one great mass and set down upon the beach of Sandy Hook or Jersey hills. Between the grove and Navisink highlands as far as the eye could reach was black with people. Not only from the seaside resorts did they come but from the inland towns where the contest has awakened intense interest. The piazzas of all the hotels near the sea were occupied by spectators who came down on the early trains and boats. Before 10 o'clock the clouds broke away in the east and clearing up began. The wind continued from east northeast and appeared to freshen. At 9 o'clock the signal service gave the velocity of the wind at twelve miles an hour. The fog horn was hushed and the mist began to move. It was wet work on board of the sailing vessels and oil skins were in great demand. Vessels coming in from seaward carried their light sails aloft. With the wind in the present direction the yachts will probably run down to the eastward. At 10 the wind was twenty miles an hour, with light rain.

THE START

SANDY HOOK, Sept 9 1 P M.—The velocity of the wind is twenty two miles an hour. It still holds from the eastward. In windward work the cutter is at her best but Boston does not allow the Englishmen to get away with her and if she hugs closely will have the advantage in the run home with free sheets. The sea is covered with white caps and a very heavy surf is pounding on the beach here. There are no signs of a let up in the storm. The fog has not lifted.

THE MAYFLOWER AHEAD

SANDY HOOK, 1 30 P M.—The yachts got off shortly after 11 A M but the fog completely shut out the view of the Scotland light ship. A tugboat captain who just came in from off here reports that when he left the yachts the Mayflower was about one eighth of a mile ahead. Both were on their second starboard tack standing toward Rockaway beach. The Galatea started ahead in the race from the Scotland light ship.

THE WIND DIES OUT

SANDY HOOK, 2 20 P M.—The fog is clearing away off shore. Several yachts are cruising outside the bar waiting the return of the racers. The wind is in the east and blowing only fourteen miles.

NEW YORK, 5 30 P M.—The incoming boats report that the yacht race is off to-day on account of the failure to make the distance in the required time.

THE RACE POSTPONED

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—There are plenty of disappointed yachtsmen in New York to-night for the second race of the international series has been postponed till Saturday. After sailing in a fresh breeze from eastward for four hours and in a light breeze from the same quarter for two hours more the Mayflower and Galatea with an accompanying fleet of nearly a hundred vessels were enveloped in a thick fog ten miles east of Sandy Hook light ship and were compelled to abandon the race. When the Mayflower rounded the [illegible] twenty miles east of Scotland light ship at 4 the Galatea was not in sight from that point. The Mayflower had outsailed her on every tack from the start, both carrying the same sail in a breeze that was steady from about east with occasional rain squalls and made a moderately heavy swell. [illegible] The Mayflower could not have [illegible] the race in the allotted time of seven hours if the weather had remained clear.

[illegible]

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—[illegible] called on [illegible] yesterday morning. He proposed that after the international races to [illegible] the Mayflower [illegible] Marblehead [illegible] until there came up a gale of wind. Then in this gale he proposed to race the Galatea from Marblehead to Cape Cod. [illegible] was somewhat taken back at this bold challenge and asked time to consider the matter. The news of Gen Paine's challenge got abroad yesterday and opinion is divided in yacht club circles [illegible] the discussion of the prospects for to-day's race. It was the general opinion that a race across Massachusetts bay would be a better test of the weatherly qualities of the American and English champions than [illegible] and Bermuda. One yachtsman said [illegible] English papers had been [illegible] that the Galatea is not the fastest boat in England but admits she is unrivaled among racing yachts for weatherly qualities. [illegible] [illegible] that any one [illegible] the [illegible] could sail with her in a gale. Now here is a chance of a race of a heroic kind worthy of two great maritime nations. I hope [illegible] will accept the challenge.

EXCURSION STEAMER ASHORE

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—The excursion steamer Empire State with 800 passengers is ashore one and a half miles south of Sandy Hook point.

SANDY HOOK, Sept 9.—The excursion steamer Empire State with about 800 passengers went ashore during a dense fog at 7 30 this evening on Sandy Hook beach about half way between life saving stations Nos 1 and [illegible]. The crews of the stations together with the steamers' boats landed the passengers on the beach in safety. Assistance was at once sent for to convey the passengers to the city, many of whom [illegible] out of town. The steamer lies in an easy position.

OTHER DISASTERS FEARED

SANDY HOOK, Sept 9.—It is rumored here that [illegible] steamer is ashore off Seabright. In all six [illegible] have been heard this evening since [illegible] o'clock which were taken for signals of distress but nothing definite can be learned.

A BRACE OF ALLEGED DOCTORS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 9.—W. [illegible] Pritchard and [illegible] arrived in this city just prior to the [illegible] Army encampment and proceeded to advertise freely as doctors capable of curing every disease known to medical science. On Tuesday however to the dismay of a large troop of creditors the two doctors suddenly disappeared, their supposed destination being Portland, Oregon. During their stay here they acquired a large and credulous clientele. As their terms were cash down and their charges ranged from $10 to $100, they did a thriving and made money from their too confiding patients.

EARTHQUAKE FELT IN MID OCEAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 9.—Capt. W. [illegible] Plummer of the steamer Mary D Hume which arrived in port to-day reports that while about sixteen miles northwest of Point Reyes at 1 20 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon nine distinct shocks of earthquake were felt. The vibrations passed from north of east to south of west, and were accompanied by a deep rumbling sound much like the distant roar of cannon. The steamer was violently shaken and loose ropes and spars moved visibly. The vibrations passed to the west of San Francisco, and were therefore not felt in this city.

NO JURISDICTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 9.—In the cases of Kama Ails, Jacob Bill and Ben, the Hoopa Valley reservation Indians charged with the murder of another Indian known as Ike, in the circuit court to-day the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty in accordance with the instruction of the court that the murder was not committed on the reservation and was therefore out of the jurisdiction of the court.

HOT EARTHQUAKE WEATHER

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 9.—To-day was another very warm experience for this city. The thermometer reached [illegible] but toward evening the weather became cooler and the heated spell is now believed to be over. Other points in the state also report extreme heat. At San Luis Obispo the thermometer was 109, at Anderson 10[illegible], St Helena 10[illegible], Oakville 10[illegible], Sacramento 9[illegible], Red Bluff 10[illegible].

THE WINE EXPORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 9.—The Merchant to-morrow will publish the statement of wine exports from California for the first half of the present year which will show the total amount of exports to be [illegible] gallons or 1 000 000 more gallons than was exported for the same period in 1885 and nearly equal to the entire export for 1884.

DEATH OF AN ARTIST

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 9.—News has been received here from Munich of the death of H Barkhaus, the talented young artist. Mr Barkhaus was the principal cartoonist of the Wasp for some time and left this city but a few months ago to pursue his art studies in Munich. He was but 21 years of age at the time of his death.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

TACOMA, Sept 9.—A scene of the wildest enthusiasm was witnessed last evening, when Pierce county, after supporting Meeker to the eighth ballot, finally cast her twenty-two votes solid for Bradshaw, followed by King, which had supported [illegible] previously.

To-day the convention was called to order at 9 o'clock and after a few remarks Dunbar of Klickitat was called to the chair made vacant by the resignation of Bradshaw. Ezra Meeker was admitted as a delegate from Pierce county by proxy and on taking his seat he invited the convention to visit the Puyallup hop fields. The invitation was thankfully accepted.

Nominations being in order, George D Hill of King was nominated brigadier general, R [illegible] O'Brien of Thurston adjutant general, J H [illegible] of Pierce quartermaster general, W C Ellsworth of Walla Walla commissioner general. Congratulatory telegrams from Dr Minor and others to Bradshaw were read amid great applause. The utmost harmony prevailed among the delegates present and nothing occurred to mar it during the entire session.

At [illegible] the convention adjourned sine die. The members of the convention and invited guests took the cars at 3 30 and proceeded to Puyallup, and after witnessing the process of hop-picking, drying, baling, etc, and holding an impromptu [illegible] meeting the party proceeded [illegible] and returned to Tacoma in time to join [illegible] held this evening.

The Record as to Economy

Indianapolis Journal

[illegible] the democratic [illegible] committee at Washington [illegible] are made to show the [illegible] of democratic to republican economy [illegible] by the present administration. The [illegible] that the last congress appropriated [illegible] for paying the expenses of the current [illegible] while the estimated revenues for the [illegible] only $3[illegible] 754 252, leaving a probable [illegible] of $[illegible] 134 035. This may [illegible] democratic economy but it is not the kind of economy the people of this country have been used to or will approve.

[illegible] be understood that the house of representatives is now democratic and not the senate [illegible] republican, is responsible primarily for the [illegible] of the congressional appropriations. [illegible] must under the constitution originate in the lower house. Of course the house [illegible] in which the revenue laws originate has a mandatory control over laws regulating expenditures. In [illegible] the party having a majority in the house of representatives is responsible for errors and is to be credited with wise measures in financial legislation.

A NATIONAL OPERA COMPANY

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—The board of directors of the American Opera company to-day decided to recommend to its stockholders a reorganization whereby a new company will be formed to be called the National Opera company and the present American company become the New York city company, corresponding to the local auxiliary companies heretofore formed in other cities. The present American company will transfer all its contracts and contracts with artists to the new company in which all the local companies, including the New York company, will have a share in the management proportioned to their share of expense. The national company will have headquarters in New York or Boston the first year and thereafter in each auxiliary city annually in rotation. The present company will not give opera on its own account but will perform only in a city having a local American company and at their own risk and each year in advance of the opera season representatives of these local companies themselves being directors of the national company will meet and decide on the repertoire, route, dates, etc, for the next season. The capital stock of the national company will all be subscribed for by local organizations in various cities including New York.

SEDGWICK'S DENIAL

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—A G Sedgwick, the special envoy to Mexico, has the following card in the Evening Post:

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept 3.

A week ago I went to a ball and stayed to the end. I went home and to bed early. The next morning my friend Gutrand came to call upon me and found me dressing and we went out. All the officers and members of the Jockey club, who are the principal people of the city, have signed a letter exonerating me from all improper behavior at any time during the ball. Gentlemen who saw me return from the ball have signed a card that they observed nothing except that I went towards my room. I have Gutrand's statement in writing as to his call in the morning, besides a statement of the hotel manager that no scene or row took place at the hotel, also that I went to my room after the ball. As no eye witness has ever been produced and I only know from hearsay what the stories circulated in the United States are, Secretary Bayard has telegraphed me that my personal denial of the scandal is enough. Make any use of this that you think proper.

COLLISION IN NEW YORK BAY

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—Capt Morrow of the tug boat Robert Robinson reports the collision of the steamer City of Alexandria with a steam dredge at [illegible] M during the dense fog. The City of Alexandria struck the dredge which immediately sank. The crew were picked up by Robinson, two [illegible] slightly injured. The damage to the steamer is unknown. It could not be ascertained whether the steamer proceeded on her course to Havana owing to the fog. The dredge is in a very dangerous position for the large number of steam and sailing craft [illegible] from the yacht race.

THE BREWERS' ASSOCIATION

NIAGARA FALLS, Sept 9.—The closing session of the Brewers' Association convention was enthusiastic. A committee of eleven was appointed to take into consideration the labor question and to report measures for the protection of employers and employes. Officers were elected as follows: President, William A Miles; vice presidents, Henry Claussen Jr and Charles G Stifel; treasurer, J Chase Rupfel; secretary, Richard Katzenmeyer. The next annual meeting will be held in [illegible] on the second Wednesday in May.

SCHILLING AND VICTORIA

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—It is reported that Ernest Schilling has received $15 000 to leave the city. He has secured an indefinite leave from the Sixth avenue railroad and disappeared. Victoria Schilling is now reported to be on the Ville Marie convent, Montreal. One of the Brentano Bros, a friend of Morosini and his daughter says that she took the train on Wednesday of last week, and while he does not believe her father will ever take her back home he will not see her want for money.

AMERICAN HORTICULTURIST SOCIETY

CLEVELAND, Sept 9.—The American Horticultural society elected officers to-day as follows: President, Parker Earle, Cobden, Illinois; vice president, F M Hudson, New Orleans, La; secretary, W H Ragan, Greencastle, Ind; treasurer, J C Evans, Harlem, Mo. The nominating committee recommended that the time of the next meeting should be February 5 1888 at some point in California. It was decided to discuss the location at a future session.

THE PRESIDENTIAL DEER HUNT

SARANAC INN, Sept 9.—Late last night it was decided that the deer hunt should take place to-day at [illegible] daylight half a dozen guides and as many dogs were in readiness for the chase. The chase lasted until near noon and the hunters returned empty handed. The president will probably remain in the wilderness at least a week longer.

EMPLOYERS PROTECTING THEMSELVES

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—The clothing cutters who [illegible] strike applied for work to-day [illegible] have been told by various employers that if [illegible] wished to be taken back they must sign [illegible] to sever their connection with the labor [illegible]. They have decided to do this and with [illegible].

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS

THE ACTIVE GERONIMO

WASHINGTON, Sept 9.—General Drum, acting secretary of war, having been authorized by the president to use his discretion in the treatment of the captured Apaches has instructed Gen Miles to remove Geronimo and his band to some secure place of confinement and while it is not yet known where they have been taken it is surmised that the captives have been removed to Fort Bliss, Texas, or to some neighboring post. It was not deemed prudent for the Indians to remain at Fort Bowie as in the event of an escape to adjacent mountains it would be almost impossible to recapture them. Despite the announcement in the official telegram that Geronimo's surrender was unconditional the [illegible] is growing at the war department, based on [illegible] well earned reputation as a strategist, that [illegible] made some conditions with his captors [illegible] at least prevent his trial in Arizona. In the absence of a more definite understanding on the subject it headquarters it is tolerably certain that the Indians will be held at some Texas fort as prisoners of war until President Cleveland returns and expresses his wishes in the matter. It is believed by officers competent to judge [illegible] of the captives would be a failure [illegible] evidence of legal weight could be adduced to [illegible] the murders that have been committed home [illegible] of these Indians. Little better results [illegible] attend trial by a military commission for the same reason and it is felt that the only feasible solution of the question of the treatment of Geronimo and his band would be their removal to a reservation probably in Florida, where from the surroundings escape would be impossible.

DECISIONS IN FAVOR OF SETTLERS

WASHINGTON, Sept 9.—In the case of the Northern Pacific railroad company versus Benjamin [illegible] Clarke involving the right of said company to lands embraced within that part of the Crow Indian reservation released under an agreement [illegible] ratified by congress April 11 1882 and de[illegible] department September [illegible] 1884, Acting Secretary Muldrow has overruled the motion for review filed therein by the said company, [illegible] that at the time of the definite location of the road opposite these lands they were excepted from the grant by reason of the existing Indian reservation.

[illegible] case of W D Jarrett vs the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway company [illegible] land [illegible] township [illegible] south, range [illegible] east, in [illegible] land district, Kansas, which lies [illegible] limits granted [illegible] grant to said company and also within ten miles of the located [illegible] of the Kansas & Neosho Valley railroad. Acting Secretary Muldrow has affirmed the decision of the general land office and decided that the priority of grant belongs to the last named company, [illegible] effect of a definite location to the [illegible] now made by the defendant [illegible] as the grant to the Neosho [illegible] has been opened by act of congress, the land is accordingly awarded to the settlers. A large tract of lands in southeastern Kansas will be affected by this decision.

FOREIGN VESSEL FINED

WASHINGTON, Sept 9.—Acting Attorney-General Jenks has submitted an opinion to the treasury department upon the question as to whether foreign vessels are liable to a fine for every passenger transported from one American port to another when passage is taken first to an intermediate foreign port and thence to a domestic port. The case giving rise to the opinion was that of a Canadian vessel which transported a passenger from Cleveland, Ohio, to Windsor, Ont., where the voyage was temporarily broken, but was resumed by the same vessel and the passenger carried to [illegible]. The acting attorney general holds that [illegible] having made substantially a continuous voyage from Cleveland to Chicago is therefore subject to a penalty of $2 for each passenger transported.

[illegible] CASE ATTENDED TO

[illegible] GERONIMO'S DEATH

WASHINGTON, Sept 9.—Atkins, commissioner of Indian affairs, is quoted in the [illegible] as insisting [illegible] The president he says will probably acquiesce in what every opposition Gen Miles makes for disposing of the prisoners. His proposition will doubtless be [illegible] which will not hesitate to award the death sentence. There is no doubt public sentiment demands the death of Geronimo.

POLITICAL

CONNECTICUT REPUBLICANS

HARTFORD, Sept 9.—The republican state convention assembled this morning with a full attendance. United States Senator O H Platt was chosen presiding officer. Phineas C Lowther was nominated for governor on the first ballot. After recess Thomas Clark was nominated for comptroller. The committee on resolutions then reported a platform. It favors a tariff upon the [illegible] productions of foreign labor fairly and justly adjusted to protect the interests of American workers without adding to their burdens. It condemns the democratic party for its persistent efforts to overthrow the protective system thereby paralyzing trade. It declares the republican party the friend of the laboring classes, opposes the importation of cheap labor from foreign countries under contract or the employment of convict labor in competition with free labor, opposes the granting of any land to railway or other corporations and selling land to syndicates, favors organization of working men for mutual improvement and benefit and pledges the party to such legislation as will tend to restore harmony between the employer and employed. It denounces the president and his administration for his indefensible vetoes of meritorious pension bills and condemns the undignified language in which such vetoes are expressed. It protests against the removal from official places of worthy and disabled Union soldiers to make room for partisan civilians and ex-Confederates, commends the republican senate for its course upon the coast and fortifications bill, and declares that the democratic house was without excuse in refusing to cooperate, favors the maintenance of gold and silver in friendly relations and the application of the surplus in the treasury to the reduction of the national debt.

A DEMOCRATIC DEADLOCK

MILWAUKEE, Sept 9.—Seventeen additional ballots were taken to-day by the Second congressional district democratic convention which has been in a deadlock for eight days. There was no change in the result from the previous votes.

CONNECTICUT REPUBLICANS

HARTFORD, Sept 9.—At the state republican convention in this city to-day H C Lounsbury was nominated for governor on the first ballot.

IRELAND

CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

DUBLIN, Sept 9.—A conference of Catholic bishops at Maynooth adopted resolutions to-day declaring that the Irish people appreciated Gladstone's efforts in behalf of Ireland and that they still adhered to their demand for home rule and indignantly denied the tory assertions that if the Irish people were allowed to govern themselves in the domestic affairs the Catholic majority would misuse the power conferred on the Irish parliament and harass the Protestants of the country. The resolutions further declare that the trouble and disorder in both Ireland and Great Britain will not cease until Ireland's right to administer her own laws is recognized. Walsh, archbishop of Dublin, Crocker, archbishop of Cashel, Macevilly, archbishop of Tuam, and twenty three bishops were present at the conference when the resolutions were adopted.

THE LANDLORDS' TRIBUTE

DUBLIN, Sept 9.—The United Ireland says: No power in Great Britain can collect the land lords' tribute in Ireland in the face of an organized, united and level headed people.

The Catholic bishops assembled at Maynooth have sent a memorial to the English government urging the adoption of temporary measures to relieve the Irish tenantry and prevent outrages to which they might resort in simple desperation.

Speaking of the disappearance of [illegible] the Saturday [illegible] says: The last time we heard of their use was by a wandering magician who was performing in the smaller towns of Texas and who was very poorly patronized for his lack of art. In the course of his entertainment he made a marked dollar disappear from a handkerchief held by a lady. Coming down into the audience he picked out a negro and said: "The dollar will be found in the pocket of this colored gentleman." All eyes were turned toward the colored gentleman who rose and extended his broad brown hand on which were half a dozen small coins. When the magician came close to him the negro said: "Boss, heah is your change. I has had two beers and a cigar outen dat dollar you tole me to keep in my pocket till you called for it."

Alexander's Triumphal Departure Proves how Popular he was with his People—Turkey's Attitude of Anxiety

NEW YORK, Sept 9.—The Tribune's cable special from London says: The abdication of Prince Alexander has produced general disappointment in England and perhaps in Austria. Nobody doubts any longer that Russia has had Bismarck's support throughout and that Austria acquiesces though not willingly. Russia is not to occupy Bulgaria or to assume an ostensible protectorate over that unhappy country but a Russian commissioner goes to Sofia as soon as Alexander [illegible] and a Russian officer takes [illegible] of the Bulgarian army. TURKEY [illegible] ANXIETY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept 9.—The Turkish ministers are much perplexed by the rapidity with which the situation changes and the pessimistic tone of the commissioner's dispatches. Gadban Effendi appears to consider civil war inevitable and advises the sultan who is consequently afraid of Turkey being drawn into action at a time when it is believed that Turkey's only safety lies in remaining perfectly still. The abdication of Prince Alexander occasioned a great deal of surprise in spite of German prognostications. According to information received by the British embassy [illegible] experienced by the prince during his journey to Lemberg such as seriously affected his mind. Karageorgevitch, the Servian pretender, has been called to St Petersburg, and this has given rise to a report that the czar intends him to occupy the vacant throne. The future union of the Balkan states under Russian influences wears a great air of triumph. The czar's fete day on Monday is to be celebrated with greater display and pomp than ever. There will be brilliant illuminations, fireworks, a banquet and a reception. Russia understands the management of the Orientals better than England.

THE PORTE'S NOTE TO THE POWERS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept 9.—In a note to the powers protesting against any foreign occupation of Bulgaria the porte refers to the representations of M Stambuloff and M Rodoslavoff made to the Ottoman commissioner at Sofia with the object of obtaining before Prince Alexander left assurances from the suzerain court and the powers that there would be no foreign occupation of Bulgaria nor any interference with the rights of Bulgaria, an independence whose safeguarding was guaranteed by treaties. The porte says it consented to Alexander's departure from Bulgaria and has informed the Bulgarian government that there will be no intervention so long as its legality is maintained and Bulgaria fulfills her duty toward her suzerain and [illegible] to the powers to favorably consider the step the Bulgarian government has taken because it is important to terminate the abnormal situation in Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia. Moreover the porte adds Russia has declared that she had no intention to intervene in Bulgaria if Prince Alexander left the country. In conclusion, the porte asks the powers to reply as promptly as possible in order to enable Turkey to give the Bulgarian government the assurance required.

HIS PATH STREWN WITH FLOWERS

TOMIALANSKA, Sept 9.—Yesterday when Prince Alexander arrived here on his way out of Bulgaria the streets were covered with triumphant arches. Everything was done to make the prince feel that the people wished to look upon his departure as transient. The president of the assembly, in his farewell address to the prince said that Bulgarians would never forget that they owed him [illegible] that they had secured as a united nation, [illegible] that they would continue to consider him as their ruler although he departed and they hoped for his speedy return. The prince in his reply said he was happy when Bulgaria was content. He [illegible] assist Bulgaria when she [illegible] I hope to see you all soon [illegible] in conclusion. The school children of [illegible] strewed his path through the city with flowers.

ALEXANDER'S TRIUMPHAL PROGRESS

LONDON, Sept 9.—Alexander's triumphal progress is almost without parallel. At every village in [illegible] through which he passed peasants were awaiting his coming and he was everywhere greeted with enthusiasm. Similar scenes occurred on the Roumanian shore and in Austria. After the prince departed from Pesth a hostile demonstration was made before the Russian consulate and police were summoned to disperse the crowds. At Presburg and other places large crowds were assembled to do honor to the prince.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: The opinion gains ground that the czar's action was due more to personal than political motives and that he only wanted to avenge himself on Alexander.

THE CZAR PROMISED NOTHING

LONDON, Sept 9.—Surprise is expressed at St. Petersburg at the statement in Prince Alexander's proclamation that the czar had promised the independence and liberty of Bulgaria. Such a promise it is declared was not made by the czar. PORTLAND, FRIDAY, SEPT. 10, 1886.

BOSH ABOUT "SLAVE LABOR."

It is hopeless to attempt discussion with those who assert broadly and brazenly that any statement which points out the usefulness of Chinese labor in certain lines among us is only a repetition of the arguments of the late slaveholders of our Southern states. It is hopeless, because the assertion that such is the case is at antipodes with truth; and because, moreover, it is an assertion that could proceed only from invincible ignorance, uncandid dullness, or the spirit of intentional misrepresentation. Chinese labor is not slave labor, and bears no comparison with slave labor. The Chinese among us are as free as other persons, to work or not, as the offer suits them. Let any farmer who has a crop of hops to be picked, or a tract of land to be cleared go among the Chinese to obtain the labor he needs, and he will soon find whether these people are slaves or freemen, whether they can be driven to allotted tasks by slave masters, or whether they are sharp and keen in driving bargains to get the most they can out of the work they are solicited to perform. The greater part of the Chinese laborers of the country are working for our farmers, in the orchards, hop fields or timber lands. The farmers pay them all they can afford to pay: they pay all that the crops or the value of the land will warrant, and they often find Chinese unwilling to work for what they can afford to offer them. When they hire Chinese they do so because it is the only labor that offers which will not bring them into debt after disposing of the produce of the land; and yet the Chinese regularly make quite as much as farm laborers in the Eastern states,—say from ten to twenty dollars a month net, or an average of twelve to fifteen dollars. It pleases demagogues here, and political tourists from the East to call this labor "slave labor." It is free men's labor, and it is better paid on the whole than similar labor in Senator Logan's or Gov. Alger's state.

The reason why this labor is as yet a "necessity" on the Pacific slope is chiefly this, that it is the only labor the agricultural producer can get which the produce of the soil at the low prices which have prevailed for years will enable him to pay. For, on the whole, crude agricultural products here are lower than in any other part of the United States. This is shown not only by comparison of the wheat market here with that of Chicago, but also by the fact that we are shipping wool, hops, hides and fruit from all parts of the Pacific slope to the Eastern states. In the more advanced forms of industry we are as yet doing little; that is, we are producing but small quantities of leather and woolen goods; we are not even turning out much canned fruit,—though the beer product (since the country began to develop so many "professional workingmen" and "jawsmiths") is pretty heavy for the population. Another reason why the farmer, orchardist and hop-grower hires the Chinaman arises from the fact that this miserable heathen has some regard for his engagements and can be fairly depended on to keep them; while in many instances the American sovereign, the consummate flower of our Christian civilization, works a few days and then leaves the employer at a critical time, hieing off to town to aid the consumption and promote the manufacture of beer,—as indifferent to his employer's interest as to his own engagement for a term of work. Losses of farmers by these delinquencies are beyond calculation. Herein has been one of the great drawbacks to the agricultural development of the country—a development that must precede the successful founding of other industries of more advanced character.

Inasmuch as a large part of Oregon and western Washington is covered with timber, which must be removed before anything else can be done, the work of "clearing" is the essential preliminary of all other industries; and it is herein, perhaps, that Chinese labor has been found more useful and more essential than in any other direction. Tens of thousands of acres already opened up by the labor of Chinese send their yearly products to market, bringing more money into the country than ever the Chinese sent out of it, creating a source of perpetual income from land which, without this labor, would remain for an indefinite period uncultivated and unproductive. Every man who has his eyes open knows all this; even the demagogues know it, though they study to ignore it with more labor than they ever employ in the study of useful facts. Who are the more useful to the country, pray, the Chinamen who clears half an acre of land each month for reasonable pay, or the "agitator" who spends his time about the streets, prating between drinks of the "wrongs of labor" and cursing the Chinaman? The fact is, as every sensible person knows, that the larger part of the labor done in this country by the Chinese would not be done at all, were the Chinese not here. Whenever white people here make up their minds to work as steadily as their brethren in the Eastern states, and for like wages, the Chinese will "go" fast enough. Till then they will be useful here. Every one takes notice that the Chinese don't go in any considerable number to the Eastern states, because they will not consent to competition with white labor there; and yet our bawling demagogues here talk of "Chinese slave labor!"

AN INSIDE VIEW.

A gentleman well known in Portland and who in the recent parliamentary election was chosen to represent a Scotch constituency, has written a letter to a friend here from which we are permitted to take the following extract. It should be known that the writer is a liberal of the moderate sort and a supporter of Gladstone:

> The situation generally is far from satisfactory. I thought that after the thorough licking we got we should be all in a humor for reconciliation, but I see no sign of it. There is a good chance at Birmingham, but it has been spoilt by the manifesto of the national liberal federation. I don't know how the Gladstonian liberals in the house feel generally, but I suspect there will be some grumbling at the attempt to force the party into a permanent home rule policy. Chamberlain gave Gladstone a slap the other day by openly avowing himself a follower of Hartington. Many of our people are furious with Chamberlain and will do anything to keep him out of power, while the Chamberlainites seem determined to prevent the G. O. M. coming back under any circumstances. Altogether the great liberal party is smashed up. The whole business has been mismanaged from the beginning. There is not so much real difference of opinion after all, and with time and caution the question might have been settled without all this disruption and bad feeling. The G. O. M. should have informed himself better about American home rule and should have consulted his party before committing himself. The outlook is altogether gloomy.

FIELD FOR ENTERPRISE.

The Oregon Pacific railroad company has in operation seventy-two miles of road between Corvallis and Yaquina bay. It is standard gauge and of expensive construction, and its course lies through a country only sparsely settled. And yet, we are told, that during the past year it has paid not only all expenses of operation but a sufficient interest on the capital invested. In this fact lies a demonstration of very great importance to the country. If the road to Yaquina bay pays, so will roads to Coos bay, down the Umpqua valley, down the Coquille river, and into Tillamook bay. It is not necessary that such roads be of standard gauge. Narrow gauge roads, costing much less to build, would serve these coast districts equally well, and if discreetly managed would yield handsome returns from the beginning. Light narrow gauge roads might be built through twenty districts in this state with the result of yielding fine profits and of developing the country. There could not be a finer field for enterprise in railroad making than in Oregon at this time.

Labor Commissioner Enos is taking evidence at San Francisco on the Chinese cheap labor question. It is found that Chinese capitalists will employ white foremen to take charge of the Chinese cigar-makers, and then advertise their goods on the boxes in this fashion: "These cigars are 'made by skilled labor, under control of white men.'" And so anti-Chinese howlers are imposed upon to smoke these cigars and praise the workmanship of the white race. Louis Liebes, who employs over 200 Chinese and a few boys and girls, with white foremen, thus testifies, in substance:

He had employed white men altogether, but, comparing them with Chinese, he gave the Chinese the preference. As to work, Chinese are a little ahead. Only by employing Chinese here can a manufacturer compete with manufacturers East. A first-class cigar in the East, costing $27 per 1000, can be made here for $11. The Chinese occupy about the same quarters as white men and are no more crowded. The Chinese pay about $2 a week board and the people in Chinatown charge a very high rent for rooms. A white man can get a very good room for $5, and the Chinese have to pay about the same. The witness believed the Chinese sent little money of their own to China, they spent most of their wages in their "little vices, such as we all have."

It is evident from these facts that California's cigar manufacturing industry would be powerless to sustain itself was it not for Chinese labor that does better work at this business than white labor.

The faithful organs are now reporting that "Senator Mitchell is visiting his mother in Butler county, Pa." Whether Mitchell's mother is living or dead there is no possibility of telling from any statement he may make. Years ago he wrote a letter from the East to Oregon, giving a sentimental account of the alleged death of his father in Pennsylvania, and professing to relate how he had attended his father upon his death bed and seen him pass away in the glorious hope of a blissful immortality; when the fact was that the letter was a tissue of lies throughout, since his father was then living and in good health and lived for years afterwards, not dying in fact till quite recently. Mitchell's object in writing this letter was to cover his own tracks and conceal certain of his villainies; and it is very doubtful now whether under cover of a pretended devotion to his mother he is not upon some new career of crookedness and deception. It is a peculiar application of the commandment, "Honor thy father and thy mother," to convert the same into a platform for the support of a series of lies, to disguise the infamies of one's career.

The Protestants and Catholics of Belfast, Ireland, recently made that city the scene of horrible murder, arson and drunken riot in the name of religion. If one-half the outrages executed by these fanatical followers of the Christian religion had been performed by the Chinese on the Pacific coast, the whole nation would have howled about the heathen barbarians who swore by Confucius; and yet we do not exclude these Belfast Irishmen from our coasts, although they have proved themselves to be among the very worst of the savages of civilization, who behave worse than the heathen in their anxiety to murder each other for the glory of God. Anarchists, Mormons, gypsy thieves from across the water are made welcome in America without let or hindrance; but the heathen Chinee, the most harmless and industrious of all our objectionable alien residents, is treated as the most unwelcome visitor to our shores, chiefly, we suspect, because he has no vote to sell, and will spend no money for rum. The salient characteristic of our white ruffians was recognized years ago by the Chinaman, who yelled, "Me Melican man now; hair cut short and d-link like hell."

The earthquake which has devastated Charleston is the second disaster within eighteen months. The city had scarcely recovered from the effects of the cyclone of last summer, which wrecked many buildings and damaged more or less nearly every house. The people, now for a second time in distress, will need help and a good deal of it. Portland should not and will not be behind in a substantial expression of her sympathy.

The Oregon Pacific is going about the work of extending its line with energy. Besides the construction party engaged between Corvallis and Albany, there are parties at work in the Malheur country and at the proposed crossing of the Cascade mountains. Each of these parties is a hundred men strong, and they are engaged on heavy rock work.

The contemptibility of modern personal journalism is absurdly illustrated by an article of nearly two columns in the Milwaukee Wisconsin, about former residents of that city now in the Wisconsin penitentiary. Each criminal is pleasantly noted by name pretty much as if he were passing a few weeks at a summer resort.

A colony of 132 persons has bought a tract of land near Toledo, Yaquina bay, and will settle upon it shortly.

Does the hot weather make you weak and tired? Hood's Sarsaparilla will give you strength.

"PORTLAND HEIGHTS."

The particular attention of seekers for suburban property is directed to "Portland Heights." This is the most magnificent property ever offered to the public, and purchasers are not subjected to various hardships, privations and annoyances in order to reach their property, such as crossing the river in stormy weather, tedious waits at ferry slips, traveling a long road 2 to 4 miles, dusty in summer and muddy in winter. This property is within the city limits, easily accessible by two newly improved, finely macadamized roads up Montgomery street and up Seventh street; is five blocks from street cars on Montgomery street, and in full view of the city. Finest view on earth. Fine water in abundance. Fine natural shade trees. Good soil. Is 400 to 700 feet above water. Prevailing winds are from north, west in summer, and is a direct ocean breeze, and not from Willamette and Columbia river sloughs. No high winds here. Is as free of malaria as the summit of Mt. Hood. Absolutely no disadvantages. No cash payment required. Small installment; no greater than house rent in the city. EUGENE D. WHITE, Agent, Rooms B, C and D, second floor, N. W. cor. First and Alder sts., Portland, Oregon.

Passed Medford to arrive over the [illegible] H. W. Mobnastes.

THE STAGE.

"The Field of Honor" at the New Market [illegible] last evening drew a fine house and the play [illegible] exceedingly well put on. As a military drama [illegible] acting scenes of the great civil war, it is above the average of that class of plays. There is a [illegible] love story running through it which is admirably worked out to a happy ending. The tableaux, particularly that at the close of the fourth act [illegible] the allegorical picture, "The Nation's Tribute," [illegible] the close of the play, were especially artistic. Mr. Grismer, as Mark Stanley, and Phoebe Davies as Ruth Peyton, the hero and heroine respectively, were good, while the comedy parts were well sustained by Harry Davenport as the Irish [illegible] and [illegible] A. Ferguson, as the German [illegible]. A very effective piece of work was that of the negro, Uncle Josh, by [illegible] D. Webster. The remainder of the cast were acceptable. To-night [illegible] be the last representation of "The Field of Honor." At the matinee to-morrow and in the evening [illegible] Hoop of Gold" for the last time. The engagement closes to-morrow night, and the company [illegible] the East.

THE STAGE.

"The Field of Honor" at the New Market theater last evening drew a fine house and the play was exceedingly well put on. As a military drama, depicting scenes of the great civil war, it is above the average of that class of plays. There is a tender love story running through it which is admirably worked out to a happy ending. The tableaux particularly that at the close of the fourth act and the allegorical picture "The Nation's Tribute" at the close of the play were splendidly arranged. Mr Grismer as Mark Stanley and Phoebe Davies as Ruth Peyton the hero and heroine respectively were good while the comedy parts were well sustained by Harry Dove [illegible] the Irish corporal and C A Ferguson as [illegible] sergeant. A very effective piece of work was that of the old negro Uncle Josh by Leo F Webster. The remainder of the cast were acceptable. To-night will be the last representation of "The Field of Honor." At the matinee to-morrow and in the evening "The Hoop of Gold" for the last time. The engagement closes to-morrow night and the company leave for the East.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

CONCERNING THE FREIGHT ON BARLEY.—THE OREGONIAN'S dispatches of Wednesday announced that the trans-continental lines entering San Francisco had cut freight rates to Chicago and St. Louis to 50 per cent of the old rate with a minimum of 50 cents per 100. This announcement has caused no little uneasiness among dealers in barley in Portland and to growers of barley in eastern Oregon and Washington who look to Chicago, St. Louis and Milwaukee for a market and a [illegible] of your [illegible] OREGONIAN reporter yesterday made inquiries on the subject and learned that to-day the O R & N, Northern Pacific and Union Pacific have been trying to make a rate of [illegible] cents, and will probably succeed in a few days. The present rate from any interior point to Chicago is [illegible] cents. If the 60 cent rate is made growers in the Inland Empire will be in as good a position as California growers because the [illegible] from interior California points to San Francisco will average at least 15 cents. This country is not likely to get as good a price for barley this year as last, when it was eagerly taken at $1 00 a hundred. Last year the crop last was very light and the quality poor. This year it is just the reverse, the yield large and quality first-class. A large commission house in Chicago writes to a firm here that the Eastern barley deteriorates with age and that which is used in brewing must be used within six or eight months from the time it is harvested. The barley of Oregon and Washington however may lie a year without losing its brewing quality. So the Eastern barley now has the call. At the present freight rates the highest that can be paid in the Inland Empire for barley is 65 cents a cental, so says the head of a well known house here. If the rate is decreased 10 cents a hundred the price of course will advance that much provided the Eastern market holds up.

BUILDING IN THE WEST END.—If any one thinks Portland is not going ahead and that property is not changing hands at high figures he should take a stroll out to the western part of the town. The excavation for the Presbyterian church at Tenth and Alder is about completed. It is 80 by 141 feet and 12 feet deep at the rear bringing the bottom to a level with the intersection of the streets. Here is shortly to be erected what will by all odds the handsomest and probably the most costly church on the coast. Two blocks away stands the High school building without doubt the handsomest and most costly public school building on the coast. A few blocks distant is going up the Medical college of the Willamette university which the contractor Geo Langford says will be the most ornamental building in the city. It is now up to the second story and is being pushed ahead with energy. Near it John Dunne of Kelly, Dunne is putting up a fine residence, and a few blocks beyond, J White is constructing a very handsome residence in the most beautiful grounds in the state. The number of costly and elegant residences in that vicinity among which are [illegible] where stumps and the charred trunks of fir trees are still standing will surprise visitors to the city. Lots in that section as well as in the business part of the city are selling at as high prices as during the boom. There appears to be no lack of faith in the future of Portland and it is bound to be one of the handsomest as well as one of the wealthiest and most prosperous cities in the Union.

WHO IS BACKING THE OREGON PACIFIC.—H C Fickenberger general agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railway in this city speaking by authority states that the company he represents is in no way connected with the Yaquina bay railroad directly or indirectly, that the Northwestern has no intention of connecting itself in future with the Oregon Pacific, that there is no intention of joining the roads at Boise City or any other point, and that John I Blair and Percy R Pyne who recently made a tour of inspection in Oregon came as individuals not as directors of the Chicago & Northwestern. This statement is true without doubt. But somebody is furnishing the money now being expended in the extension of the Oregon Pacific because the bills are paid promptly even if the old debts are not. Blair is famous for his building of western roads and is a man of great private wealth. He is the power behind the throne. This was evidenced by an incident on his trip from Corvallis to Yaquina bay. A piece of unworkmanlike work showed that a certain employe in high position was not fitted for it. Blair was hot, and the next day the employe's head fell into the waste basket. Blair and Pyne are large stockholders in the Northwestern and the presumption is they can swing the company wherever they choose to.

CHINAMAN IN IN A CHESTNUT CHARGE.—Ing Go a rather intelligent appearing celestial has been arrested on a warrant from Justice Tuttle's court on a charge of the larceny of $500 from Ah Chew on July 14. The accused was brought here from Canyon City to answer to the charge and in default of bonds was committed to the county jail pending his examination. Ing Go's version of the affair is that some time ago at Canyon City a heathen known as Ah Fong was arrested for a charge of the larceny of $[illegible] from Due Hong. Ing Go acted as interpreter in the prosecution of Ah Fong and pending the settlement of the case Ah Fong hanged himself in jail. Ing Go claims Ah Chew is one of the company or party to which Ah Fong belonged and in order to get even with him for causing Fong's arrest and prosecuting him they have brought this charge of larceny against him. He also claims they put up a job to have him killed, etc.

COULD NOT GET IT CHECKED.—Yesterday afternoon a Missourian returning to his home near St. Joseph, concluded to take a present to his folks and of all unwieldy inappropriate things decided on a cooking stove. He went to a First street establishment, selected one that cost $16 including the pipe, had the pipe securely wired to the stove, the whole thing covered with gunny sacks and bound with rope. Then he had the stove hauled to Ash street wharf and asked that it be checked. He was not more surprised at the refusal of the baggage master to receive it than the gang of passenger agents were to see it offered as baggage. It beat anything in the recollection of the oldest of them, and one of the rusties dates his railroading back to the time when Commodore Vanderbilt and Billy Meade were [illegible] schoolboys together on Staten island

NOT A FIRE ALARM.—About 8 o'clock last night considerable excitement was created down town by the continuous blowing of a steamboat whistle. It lasted two or three minutes and hundreds of people rushed to the edge of several wharves expecting to see the Willamette river on fire or an earthquake swallowing up the Morrison street bridge. The long shriek was occasioned by the whistle of the steamer Toledo dragging anchor that was all. Some way or other the pitman connecting with the brake beam got foul of the air chamber that furnishes the incandescent asbestos and thus prevented the rudder from acting on the fore topsail mast and shutting off the passage between the noise producing element and the noise escape.

REDUCED FREIGHT RATES TO IDAHO.—Reductions have been made in the rate from Portland to points on the Oregon Short Line [illegible] cents per 100 pounds upon first class, 45 cents on second [illegible] cents on third class. This will enable Portland to compete more successfully for that trade that has heretofore [illegible] the East although rates that were in effect prior to the above reduction were by no means prohibitory. A further reduction of rates on certain commodities is contemplated by the O R & N and Short Line which will probably [illegible] in a few days. The country [illegible] Portland along the Short Line [illegible] is rapidly becoming very valuable to [illegible] of our merchants now [illegible] good business [illegible]

[illegible] Yesterday afternoon [illegible] D [illegible] was notified by telephone from [illegible] George Loss [illegible] his cabin [illegible] Judge Cathcart [illegible] the coroner [illegible] took charge [illegible] Loss was a [illegible] years [illegible] He was [illegible] the [illegible] with [illegible] morning

[illegible] on the property [illegible] yesterday visited the City park to select the proposed site for the 11 000 000 gallon reservoir to be built by the commission. The committee will report to the council but it is understood that they think the location a suitable one and that the reservoir will be a more ornamental feature to the park than a deep rugged canyon. But it will require a substantial dam to be safe.

GOOD SHOOTING.—J S Evans and George Bliss returned yesterday from a hunting trip to Deer island bringing 165 ducks the largest bag made this season. Five of the ducks were mallards, the remainder being wood ducks. They lost a number of ducks in the lily ponds and the grass which is very tall and rank. W D Close, a well known sportsman of Kalama, was also shooting on the island and killed quite a number of ducks. The wood ducks had better hurry up and leave if they don't want to remain here permanently

RECOVERED LOST MONEY.—About a month ago a laborer named Murphy in the employ of John [illegible] was paid his wages and shortly after the sack containing his money, $61 in all was stolen from his pocket. As Mr Murphy is a poor man the loss was a serious matter to him. Yesterday a little girl named Calloway while playing with her companions near Dunn's brickyard found Murphy's sack lying partially concealed under a log. Only $8 of the money was gone and the remaining $53 was very welcome to the owner

INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation of the Mount Hood steam laundry were filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk by Z T Wright Daniel Kern and Con Ryan. The objects of the corporation as the title of the corporation denotes, to run a steam laundry to construct the necessary buildings for so doing and furnish them with such machinery as may be required. Capital stock $22,000 divided into shares of the value of $10 each. The principal office is to be located in Portland

DECIDEDLY MIXED CARGO.—Persons on hand at the depot when the train from Tacoma arrives can form an idea of the country through which the road passes by the freight carried. Yesterday there were a number of boxes of fish and sacks of oysters a roll of bearskins a carcass of venison a huge string of ducks another of grouse and pheasants and a whopping big sturgeon, which Conductor Holt said he caught with a fly. This statement is probably whopper than the sturgeon

CROPS ON COWLITZ PRAIRIE.—Our regular correspondent at Toledo writes. The grain was harvested in this section in good season and the yield was a good average—wheat about twenty five bushels to the acre and oats fifty. Cowlitz prairie has produced over 40 000 bushels of grain this season. The fruit yield is large and of fine quality. Many immigrants are arriving here now from Kansas and Texas. There is plenty of room for them.

SOCIAL PRACTICE.—The social at Taylor Street M E church this evening. A fine programme has been prepared consisting of recitations vocal and instrumental music. Miss Downs a [illegible] from Detroit Mich. will render some choice selections during the evening. The auditorium will be lighted and opportunity given to members and friends to select their pews and sittings for the coming year

ADDITIONAL SUBSCRIPTIONS.—The following contributors to the Irish parliamentary fund were accidentally omitted from the list published yesterday morning. John Kelly $10 Walter O'Shea $[illegible] T B O'Shea $20 [illegible] $10 [illegible] M Fay $5 James Lotan $10 Henry Ach $10 Archbishop Gross $10. An error occurred in the subscription of S. Pennoyer which was $10 instead of $[illegible] as stated

PROBABLE COMPETITIVE DRILL.—In all probability the Seattle Rifles will be over early in November and contend with Company C and others at the Mechanics' pavilion for a prize for best drilling. They will present some forty picked men on the occasion

State of Oregon vs. Wm Bray arraigned and one day to plead. W Mount appointed to defend. Bray alias Brown has been indicted by the grand jury for the larceny of $240 from J C Donnelly, Florence Helen M Crook being his accomplice in the transaction. Both parties were apprehended in Tacoma. The indictment cites the fact that the larceny was perpetrated in this city August [illegible] last and that the money stolen was the personal property of Cellarius and B Frosch and not Donnelly's who was merely its custodian

State of Oregon vs Edward Lathey, not a true bill. Lathey was arrested on information filed by the police [illegible] August 18 on a charge of larceny in a store

The grand jury returned two indictments against Ah Dee [illegible] with the larceny of [illegible] from the store of [illegible] Barr [illegible] First street between Washington and Stark and the second with having stolen [illegible] on the night of August [illegible] from Sealy Mason & Co's store. Dennis Malone saw him do so in the act of concealing the [illegible] his blouse and seized and held him until the policeman arrived on the scene. Judge Stearns appointed J Silverstone to defend Ah Dee and allowed the accused until to day to plead

State of Oregon vs Ah Sing arrested in the [illegible] for burglary not a true bill

Another [illegible] who also claims his name is Ah Sing will be called upon to-day to plead to a charge of larceny. [illegible] Jolly has been appointed to defend him. This particular Ah Sing has been indicted by the grand jury for stealing $45 a lady's gold watch a pair of bracelets a diamond ring, an amethyst ring and several other articles of value July [illegible] from the residence of N Wolfe on Yamhill street. He was caught by Mrs Wolfe coming down stairs from her daughter's room. She tried to hold him but the heathen broke away and ran through and out on the street, where he was overhauled. In the meantime he had thrown the jewelry over a fence into a yard where it was afterward recovered. Sing denies his part of the transaction but admits the balance of it so it would appear that the only question that will have to be decided is how long Sing will be secluded from the public care in a hotel provided by the state at Salem

NEW SUITS

Suit was commenced in the state circuit court yesterday by George H Blackwelder against Sheriff T A Jordan. According to the allegations in the complaint on January 1 George Tarrant executed a promissory note for $2000 to J M Cross payable in ninety days and secured by a chattel mortgage on the machinery and tools of the Portland box factory. The note was assigned to Blackwelder for a valuable consideration. In the meantime Sheriff Jordan took possession of the property by attachment. Plaintiff complains there is an unlawful detention on the part of the sheriff and therefore seeks to recover possession of the machinery and tools or their value $[illegible]00; also $[illegible]0 damages

In Justice Tuttle's court yesterday Parrish Watkins & Cornell brought a suit to recover possession of the Budd stables in Front street between Madison and Main tenanted by James Armstrong. The complaint sets forth that on August [illegible] Armstrong was served with notice to quit the premises. As he failed to comply with the request, a writ of ejectment was issued. It was served by Constable Sprague and Armstrong vacated.

COST AND MANAGEMENT OF WATER WORKS

TO Tax Payer.—In Crow's Statistics of Water Works in the United States which is acknowledged authority and used as a text book where these matters are discussed in conventions you will find comparisons made between ten cities each respectively with water supply systems built owned and managed by the city and a like number built owned and managed by private companies

They are as follows Williamsport Pa Wilmington, N C Leavenworth Kan Akron Ohio New Albany Iowa Newport R I Topeka Kan Kingston Can Schenectady N Y. The aggregate population of these cities is 164 106. The ten cities which own their own works are Saginaw Mich Yonkers, N Y New Brunswick N J Newton Mass Bangor Me Sandusky Ohio Norwich, Conn Meriden Conn Lafayette Ind Concord N H—the aggregate population of which is 164 118 a difference only in population of 12

You will find that the public works built by those cities named have cost $3 290 per 1000 inhabitants and those built by private companies have cost $14 550 per 1000. The annual expenditure per 1000 people for public works is $608 and for private works is $58 exclusive of interest on bonded debts in both cases and the amount yearly collected from consumers and tax payers in the public works is $[illegible] per 1000 while it amounted to $[illegible] in cities supplied by private works

Here are some very reliable data to form an opinion as to the working of a public system for Portland to start with. In these ten cities above named (where no one will doubt but such work can be done far cheaper than here where they have all material at their doors and less price for labor) the cost for construction has been an average of $35 [illegible] per 1000 population. Now that Portland has 35 000 population to be supplied at owning work could be built in accordance with Eastern cost the outcome would be the sum of $[illegible] unless such work can be done cheaper here than there

Now the [illegible] the expenses which are to be sustained by direct tax and water rents. If Portland water [illegible] not in proving [illegible] management [illegible] in those Eastern cities the amount that must be yearly raised will be to the city in the [illegible] exclusive of interest on $1 [illegible] 000 bonds [illegible] making a sum total of $[illegible] Now this shows the public works the whole and exclusive business of selling water to the inhabitants, but in not one of these ten cities is there any [illegible] owned [illegible] by a private company as is the case here and which will of course continue to run. Such being the fact will not this make [illegible] difference in the above estimate

These twenty cities whose cost and expenses of management of water works are compared and particularly the ten running their own works it must be admitted are fair samples of well managed enterprising and prosperous places and doubtless their water board management is as good and economical as can be done in Portland

If I am out of the way in my deductions as to the result I would like to be corrected. This business of an other water works in this city has had as yet but little light shed upon it and needs light badly

SUICIDE

[illegible] W T Sept [illegible]

David Deffenbough was found dead in his house about three miles from here yesterday. Justice Hinkley held an inquest to day and the jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. The body was decomposed and the deed must have been committed a week or ten days since. Deceased was a single man and had no relatives on the coast. He formerly lived at Silver lake Cowlitz county. One hundred and sixty three dollars were found in the house but nothing to indicate the cause of the suicide or any statement as to the disposition of his property. He owned eighty acres of land and has some money loaned out. Deffenbough was well known in Lewis and Cowlitz counties and it has long been thought that his mind was not well balanced. He served through the war in the Federal army and was drawing a pension at the time of his death

The Morning Dress.

It is said that a lady's standing in society can easily be determined by her dress at the breakfast table. An expensive showy costume indicating that the wearer has not yet learned the proprieties. Perfect beauty is never the attendant of disease, above all of those diseases peculiar to women and which find a ready cure in Dr Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Price reduced to one dollar. FREIGHTS—Arrivals for the week have been the Silverhow Glenfyne and Don under prior charter and Birmah John Gambles Deva and Loch Awe seeking Sailings were Ladstock with wheat and salmon Thetis with flour and 1 the berth with wheat. The Vallejo and Shakespeare have filled up with wheat, the Arthurstone has about filled up with salmon at Astoria and the Noddleburn Seaforth, River Clyde British Commodore and Jessie Osborne are leading ones in berth here The market has shown no life and the arrival of four open vessels has a tendency to weaken the position of owners Asking rates however appear to be without change

WHEAT—Receipts for the week 2317 tons valley and 4464 tons Walla Walla against 1498 and 7096 tons the same week last year and 1552 and 1701 tons the preceding week this year San Francisco shipments by last steamer, 3082 centals The foreign movement is slow but some of the fleet in river for some time past have filled up and at the close there is a reduction in the quantity at hand and chartered

As against one week ago the foreign market is lower to sell in Chicago and New York slightly higher for early options and only fractionally changed for the later ones, San Francisco spot higher under pressure to fill tonnage and options in sympathy Our market cannot be said to show marked change Sales have all along been at $1 22½@1 25 for valley and $1 15@1 17½ for Walla Walla A firm seller with a desirable parcel could doubtless secure his fraction better but it would greatly depend upon the buyer's mood at the time When the bulk of business is in the interior as it now is close quotations are difficult. The extremes named above are certainly full figures for ordinary business and are maintained because buyers have wanted the wheat and still want some and because it could not be had for less In point of fact it is not worth the money Only on the presumption that an article is worth all it will bring is wheat worth prices paid. With no decline in freights and a lower selling market it will be seen that exporters are in an unenviable position They claim a turn must soon come their way as indeed it will with most urgent demands filled One says another is in a pinch and another says still another is the cause of local prices being maintained Certainly some one is paying the full prices for in the eastern section less than $1 1 has failed to buy at some points while at others some decline from this has been accepted For valley west side is the favorite and brings full figures while east side brings out generally lower bids without transactions of moment All over the world there is a decided bearish feeling but it seems the foreign buyer is not willing to express his confidence by a monetary shout bad harvests and low stocks failing to bring out speculation Statistics favor the bearish feeling but fail to mend matters Locally prices are very likely to go lower before they go higher, yet much depends upon sellers

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK Sept —Government dull but firm The yacht race again drew a large proportion of the operators in the street away and as a consequence today's stock market was dull and almost featureless trading being confined to some ten or a dozen stocks which furnished over three quarters of the business The most important item of the day was the advance in the price of silver on the Pacific coast The prices at the opening were irregular but showed only slight changes from the closing figures of last evening except in the case of Kansas and Texas which was up and Missouri Pacific which was lower Except in the stocks above mentioned the market fluctuated within a narrow range and continued steady throughout the entire day but sagged in the last hour and closed barely steady at the lowest figures

THE TACOMA CONVENTION.

Full Text of the Platform Put Forth by the Republicans Wednesday Night

Condemns the Chinese Outrages at the Sound and Recognizes the Principle of Prohibition—Something about Mr Bradshaw the Candidate.

We have by mail and give below the platform adopted by the territorial convention at Tacoma It is due to the readers of THE OREGONIAN that they should know why it was that this document did not come properly by telegraph for publication yesterday It seems that the telegraph office at Tacoma like other country offices, closes shortly after the chickens go to roost. Even on so important an occasion as that of Wednesday no provision was made for official service, and after 1 o clock it was not possible to communicate with or from the Tacoma office Hence the delay which THE OREGONIAN regrets not less than its readers Should anything ever happen again at Tacoma the telegraph company ought to make some arrangement for prompt service

THE PLATFORM

Following is the platform as it came from the committee

The republicans of Washington territory in convention assembled affirm anew their devotion to the republican party their adherence to its principles as enumerated in the national platform of 1884 their pride in its achievements and their confidence in its future and recognize the principle of home rule as the basis of government of the people by the people and for the people

And our territory having sufficient population and wealth to become one of the states of the American union we demand its admission into the Union as a sovereign state and we denounce the inaction of the democratic house of representatives at its late session in refusing to pass the senate bill for that purpose as a gross outrage upon our citizens We denounce the democratic majority in the house for refusing to pass the senate bill for the admission into the Union of the state of Washington with its boundaries enlarged to include north Idaho

We condemn the gross misuse of the veto power by President Cleveland which is not only a departure from the teachings and practices of the early presidents of the republic but one which is fraught with danger for the future as establishing a precedent which may be used to thrust aside the will of the people and to establish in our government a personal power incompatible with the best and highest popular liberty And we especially condemn the outrageous vetoes of private pension bills by President Cleveland as indicating that in the mind of the president an application for a pension is prima facie evidence that the applicant is an imposter and a fraud And we condemn the language contained in the private pension veto messages as cruelly and needlessly insulting to old soldiers who are richly deserving of the bounty of the government

We believe in the republican doctrine of a tariff not only for revenue but also for the protection and development of American industry and we demand, in behalf of the great wool growing interests of our territory the restoration of the wool tariff of 1867 and further realizing that the prosperity of Washington territory depends in a large measure upon the coal and lumber industries, we earnestly protest against the placing of coal and lumber on the free list as proposed by the Morrison tariff bill which received the support of a large majority of the democratic representatives in congress and we regard the extensive democratic support given that bill as in part a blow aimed by the democratic party at this territory and we further regard the republican representatives who secured the defeat of the aforesaid bill as true friends to the people of the northwest

We denounce the democratic administration of the general land office for withholding the patents for lands acquired by settlers under the liberal interpretations of the land laws made by republican officials thus unsettling titles and carrying fear and dismay to the hearthstones of thousands of honest settlers by the insinuation that they are thieves and perjurers

Liberal appropriations from the national treasury are demanded for the opening of the Columbia and other rivers and the improvement of all the navigable waterways in the territory for the establishment of lighthouses fog signals and structures for military and naval defense in our harbors and along our coasts, for the construction of public buildings and other needed internal improvements and for increased mail facilities

We believe the safety and permanence of any republic depends on the laboring masses being intelligent and patriotic and the introduction of any laboring element that does not possess these qualifications necessary to the perpetuation of our institutions is attended with the utmost danger and should be guarded against with the utmost care We therefore earnestly protest against the continuance of the present treaty with China, and we earnestly appeal to congress for the passage of laws which shall effectually bar from competition with American labor the pauper contract labor of both Europe and Asia and shall exclude from our shores all persons who are either unwilling or unable to become true American citizens

We express our abhorrence of lawlessness in every shape and form and we believe that any attempt on the part of the people of the Pacific coast to correct the evils of which they complain by riotous outbreaks and defiance of the national authority, is suicidal to their cause, incompatible with good citizenship and deserving of the unqualified condemnation of all true Americans and we declare that the efforts of the public officials to uphold and maintain the laws meets with the hearty approval of the republicans of Washington

We favor such a modification of the exemption laws as will not exempt any property from execution upon a judgment for laborer's wages

Grants of lands to corporations should receive the same strict construction as grants to individuals and all lands heretofore granted to corporations to aid in the construction of railroads so far as the same are now subject to forfeiture by reason of the nonfulfillment of the conditions on which the grants were made ought to be immediately forfeited to the United States restored to the public domain and at once become subject to entry by actual settlers in accordance with the laws of the United States securing however to bona fide purchasers and settlers the title to such of said lands as have been purchased or occupied by them in good faith, and we are strenuously opposed to allowing the Northern Pacific railroad company to select occupied lands outside of the forty mile limit in lieu of lands claimed to be lost within said limit and we insist upon the government speedily conferring title to those settlers who are occupying lieu lands in good faith We are further opposed to the company selecting lands in this territory in lieu of lands claimed to be lost in other states and territories

We condemn the action of Delegate Voorhees in aiding the democratic majority of the house of representatives to defeat the passage of the senate bill commonly called the Dolph bill which action prevented the forfeiture of the Wallula Portland and other unearned portions of the land grant to the Northern Pacific railroad the restoration to the public domain of over 2 000 000 acres of land and the taxation of the right of way of the company

We especially endorse the plank of the last national republican platform which says The principle of the public regulation of railway corporations is a wise and salutary one for the protection of all classes of the people and we favor legislation that shall prevent unjust discrimination and excessive charges for transportation and that shall secure to the people and the railways alike the fair and equal protection of the law In order that these benefits may be enjoyed by the people of Washington territory, we favor the passage of a law for the establishment of a railroad commission clothed with powers such as have been exerted for the benefit of the people of a majority of the states of the Union And we denounce the action of the democratic house of representatives by reason of which the Cullom inter state commerce bill failed to become a law depriving the people of the whole country of the benefits of a wise and salutary regulation of transportation

We favor just and equal taxation and believe that the property of corporations and individuals should be assessed and taxed upon the same basis and therefore demand the repeal of the present territorial law known as the gross earnings law providing for the levy and collection of taxes upon railroad property and the enactment of a law which will impose the burden of taxation upon corporations and individuals alike

We demand legislation which will prevent the continuance of the arbitrary and excessive freight rates imposed upon the consumers of eastern Washington by the transportation companies whereby they are compelled to pay through rates to the coast and local rates back on all they consume

We are in favor of a speedy adjustment and payment of all valid claims against the government for the depredations committed by Indians against settlers during the Indian wars

We heartily indorse our present law conferring suffrage upon women and are strenuously opposed to its repeal or modification

The republican party of Washington territory recognizes the right and duty of the people to regulate the traffic in intoxicating liquors and favors the passage of an act submitting to the decision of the people the question whether they desire prohibition or high license the law to be enacted by the legislature to be ejected at the first election held after such enactment by the people provided that in the event of a majority in favor of prohibition sufficient time should be given to persons engaged in the liquor traffic to withdraw their capital and dispose of their property without material loss or damage

We demand the strict enforcement of the laws for the protection of miners and we believe that the inspector of mines should be elected directly by the people that he should be paid a fixed salary directly from the territorial treasury and that the present system of payment in proportion to the amount of coal mined should be abolished

The republican party has ever maintained and fostered the public school system as the foundation of American liberties and it believes in liberal appropriations of public moneys to provide for the common school education of every child

The republican party submits its platform and its candidates to the intelligent and the patriotism of the people and invokes to the support all without regard to past affiliation who desire just laws good government peace and security True to its mission it will bring its efforts to bear in the solution of the important subject involved in broad statesmanlike and equitable methods Born to protect human rights it never can be brought by any argument or by any pressure to deprive any one of a right however small without awarding just compensation Upon this platform of principles and upon its past record it appeals with confidence to the candid judgment of an intelligent people and as to the consequences is willing to take its chances and abide its destiny.

ALTERATIONS IN THE CONVENTION

For that portion in reference to the liquor traffic Judge Lewis of King county, offered the following substitute, which was rejected

Realizing as we do the evils attending upon the traffic in intoxicating liquors and sympathizing with all movements for the eradication of those evils which give a reasonable promise of attaining the object desired, and believing, as we do, that all legislation tending to bring power nearer to the people, and especially all legislation tending to give them a more direct voice in the control of the affairs which most nearly concern them, is wise, salutary and in strict conformity with the spirit of our institutions we endorse the local option law and favor its retention upon the statute books

It was then moved and carried that the following resolution be added to the platform, a vote being taken on the call by the secretary of each delegate's name

Resolved That we are in favor of the principle of local option in the prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquors

The chairman ordered that the resolution be placed in the platform in its proper place

During the discussion on these two resolutions a gentleman appealed from the ruling of the chair, the latter being sustained however by the convention Debate on the matter continued for nearly one hour, and many jesting remarks were made which kept the delegates in a high state of glee and the best of feeling prevailed throughout The resolution which was adopted and added to the platform was carried by an overwhelming majority

THE BALLOTING

About 10 30 o clock the secretary commenced the roll-call the first vote resulting as follows

Squire 34 Meeker 54 Brents 51 Dunbar 35 Miner 14 Eldridge 11 and Brown 10

The second vote gave Squire 101 his gain coming from each of the other candidates which showed his full strength it being the highest vote he received

After the second vote a motion to adjourn was made which was lost The third fourth and fifth votes showed each a loss for Squire the other candidates losing and gaining alternately

On the third vote a break was made for Haines and for two votes he seemed to be in a fair way to receive the nomination On the same vote Bradshaw received several votes and on the ninth and last vote a move was made for him which when Pierce county was reached and twenty two votes were thrown for Bradshaw the wildest enthusiasm prevailed Other counties in rapid succession gave him their votes and the counties otherwise voting changed them for him The secretary was unable to record the votes and a motion was made amid the most intense excitement to make the nomination of Charles M Bradshaw unanimous The secretary put the motion which was carried by a deafening furore Delegates threw their hats in the air cheered and crowded to the platform to congratulate the successful candidate He was lifted off the stage to the floor and all but carried on the shoulders of the enthusiastic delegates

THE CANDIDATE

The Tacoma Ledger fully endorsing the candidate gives the following account of him

Charles M Bradshaw was born in Erie ca at Susquehannah county Pennsylvania At the age of 18 years he removed with his parents to New York residing there until 21 years of age when he came out to Puget sound settling in [illegible] where he engaged in farming and lumbering Having made up his mind to take up a profession he commenced the study of law and in 18 he was admitted to practice at the bar before the supreme court at Olympia Two years later in 187 Mr Bradshaw removed to Port Townsend He first came into public life in 18 when he was elected prosecuting attorney for the Third judicial district At the end of his term he was re elected and served until 18 In 188 he was again brought out as a candidate for the office of prosecuting attorney and was elected, serving one term During these years of his residence in Port Townsend he was a member of the territorial legislature for five sessions—three times in the council and twice in the house At one session he was president of the council Twice he was mayor of Port Townsend At present he is one of the directors of the First National bank and a school director in that city

THE FIREMEN'S CONTEST

SALEM Sept 9

The festivities attending the firemen's tournament commenced on Tuesday morning when our fire department received the Astoria boys upon their arrival on the Albany express train The H A C band led a large procession of firemen and citizens on their march to the train, and the sight of the Astoria boys prompted loud and continued applause. A procession was hastily formed under the supervision of Chief Marshal John W Minto and Chief Engineer Anderson ably assisted by Geo H Burnett as assistant marshal. The line of march led direct to the skating rink, now occupied by company B as an armory, where the Rescue's elegant hose team found appropriate quarters by the side of that of Eugene hose company's already housed Large crowds of people were on the streets and greeted with cheers the visiting firemen There were no formal speeches made and after the carts were housed the crowd quietly dispersed

The board of directors of the Firemen's association met at Capital engine house at 9 30 A M yesterday and appointed judges and timekeepers as announced in this morning's OREGONIAN

The association was called to order at 10 o clock A M President Worsley presiding and adjourned until 1 o clock P M after appointing E A Downing of Salem, Frank Parker of Astoria and John A Hoffman, of Albany a committee on credentials

Upon reassembling the committee submitted the following report of delegates entitled to seats, which was adopted

Astoria Engine Co, No 1, of Astoria—G C Fulton C J Curtis

Also the following chief engineers Robert M Day of Eugene City Geo Anderson of Salem G Kellogg of Seattle W I Charles Athey of Oregon City J M Hoffman of Albany Frank Parker of Astoria

The Astoria firemen raised a question as to the legality of a resolution adopted at the last meeting of the association abolishing the use of the harness in running contests and also one lengthening the distance to be run by hose teams in steamer contests to 50 feet They succeeded in bringing the matter up from the table and the association readopted both resolutions and the matter stands precisely as it did at the close of the last session Hon F I B McElroy of Salem delivered a very interesting address on the inadequacy of our present system of building schoolhouses as to opportunities of escape in case of fire He was requested to furnish the same to the secretary of the association for publication in the proceedings of the association President Worsley then delivered his annual address

The report of Frank J Hodgkin as secretary and treasurer of the association showed a membership of twenty companies The receipts of the association were $ and the expenditures $ leaving a balance of $ in the treasury The report was adopted

THE PARADE

[illegible] o clock P M yesterday the parade was under the management of Marshal John W Minto and George H Burnett assistant and was handsomely managed throughout

The procession moved a few minutes after [illegible] o clock up State to Church thence to Court hence to Commercial street down Commercial to [illegible] thence countermarched to the intersection of State and Commercial streets where a circle was formed for the welcoming exercises

Mayor Skinner was introduced by F J Hodgkin and in a few well chosen remarks he bid the boys welcome A poem written by Col A L Hawley of this city was then read by Secretary Hodgkin It will be published in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN

Brief remarks were made by President Worsley in behalf of the visiting firemen and by ex Chief Engineer Wilbur of Albany and Chief Kellogg of Seattle The procession then disbanded the [illegible] teams being housed by local firemen

THE CONTESTS

Commercial street having been set aside for the race contests was placed in splendid condition and was under the exclusive control of the firemen Marshal Harford and Chief Engineer Anderson had perfected all arrangements [illegible] [illegible] The steamer contest was called at 10 A M Tigers being the first to enter the list

STEAMER CONTESTS RULES

[illegible] Steam engines to run 100 feet with not less than forty [illegible] hose companies to run 50 feet with 250 feet of hose on reel Hose to be in one continuous line all couplings made [illegible] each hose to engine by 100 feet of hose break coupling put on play pipe and throw water pipe to be screwed on and if blown off no time to be given Time to be called when water passes through nozzle First prize $100 second $50

The Tigers made a successful and [illegible] run and water passed through in [illegible] seconds The Rescues made a good run but were unfortunate in making connections and made the race in [illegible] seconds and for the [illegible] years losing the [illegible] The Salem [illegible] especially the Tigers were [illegible] result

HOOK AND LADDER CONTEST

2 Hook and ladder teams of not more than thirty men shall run 600 feet [illegible] thirty foot ladder within ten degrees of perpendicular in the street and have a man ascend to the top in any manner that he may select. Time to be called when he grasps the top rung which must be held until time is called First prize $100, second prize, $50

Alert hook and ladder company No 1, of Salem won this race time being as follows Alerts of Salem [illegible] seconds Alerts of Astoria [illegible] A team made up from the Astoria department [illegible] seconds, and Salem counted another peg The second prize in this instance will revert to the association

The 300 yard footrace over which there has been so much talk, especially among the Astorian friends of Pete Grant and George Noland, proved, after all rather a tame affair Noland declining at the last moment to enter T C Peebles and E Wheeler of Lebanon, and W Dysinger of Eugene were Grant's contestants He of course, having an easy race in 29¾ the track being short of 300 yards The crowd then adjourned for dinner

THE EAST SIDE

Y M C A MATTERS

The East Portland branch of the Young Men's Christian association is now without a secretary Mr E C Webber who has held the position ever since its organization having removed to Davenport Iowa A meeting of the members was held a few evenings since when the subject of electing a secretary was brought up and discussed and it was decided not to elect a secretary at present but a number of the members agreed to act as secretary and take charge of the rooms alternate evenings until a successor to Mr Webber is elected The rooms will continue to be open as usual It has been decided to hold a public meeting at Neppach's hall on or about the 21st of the present month to which our citizens generally especially our business and professional men will be invited to attend when the claims of the association upon them will be presented and their co operation asked

The young men's meeting will be held on Saturday evening as usual and will be led by Mr Jas Fitzgerald

NOT YET LOCATED

The colony of Missourians which arrived here and have been occupying the old Knott residence on the corner of I and Water streets for the past three weeks have not yet decided upon a location They held a meeting on Tuesday evening last at which it was decided that as their furniture had arrived and their present quarters being too small to accommodate so large a number, each family should have the privilege of renting such houses or rooms as they desired and those who wished to go to work should have the privilege of doing so until a location has been decided on and await the call of the president In accordance with this arrangement a large number of the families have rented houses and rooms in different portions of the city and several of the men have found temporary employment Others are endeavoring to do so

CRUELTY TO A HORSE

A lady residing on I street between Third and Fourth informed a reporter for this paper last evening that she had seen something in the shape of a man brutally ill treat a horse on the corner of I and Third streets yesterday afternoon She says the horse happened accidently to step on his driver's toe when the fellow took the handle of the black snake he held in his hand and struck the animal across the legs a score or more savage blows and not letting up until the poor horse was about to fall to the ground She says she believes if she had been a man she could have given the fellow just as many and hard blows in return She could not learn the man's name or where he belonged to or she would enter a complaint against him

A NEW BRIDGE WANTED

Street Commissioner Bartel has commenced temporary repairs to the bridge at the north end of Fourth street near the Albina line and not a day too soon as the bridge has been considered unsafe for travel for some time past It is almost certain that a new bridge will have to be built within a few months as there is a great amount of travel over it daily

BULL RUN WATER AND ELECTRIC LIGHTING

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I wish to set before the citizens of Portland the outlines of plans long contemplated by me looking to the future lighting of Portland I believe it to be inevitable that Portland in the near future will be supplied with water from the Bull Run river either by the city or by private enterprise, and it is equally certain that Portland will be lighted with incandescent electric lamps for these lamps will be used exclusively very soon for both public and private lighting It is the true light of the near future

When the present contract for city lighting was entered into some seventeen months ago it was not possible to light all the streets of a city the size of Portland with incandescent electric lamps At that time I explained to the council that it was not advisable to enter into a contract for a longer period than two years For electric lighting was then in an experimental stage No man could then foresee future developments

Electricity can be generated cheaply by power only of some kind The cheapest power becomes therefore the greatest factor in extensive public lighting It is not practicable to transmit electricity over long wires at a great distance from the point where the electricity is to be used It is this which keeps distant water falls or other water power from being available for practical electric lighting The waste of electricity is so great that all such means have proved unprofitable This has been known for years by all practical electricians

The Universal Engineer is the great engineering paper of the world It is published in Paris in four languages the same matter being printed in four languages in four parallel columns on each page In its issue of August 11 1886 it summarizes the results of M Marcel Deprez's famous French electrician M Deprez has been engaged for ten years in experiments connected with the transmission of force by means of electricity The Engineer says The Rothschilds some time since provided him with unlimited credit to prosecute his researches at Creil under the inspection of a commission of thirty eight men of science Last month the commission met to hear a report on the results at present obtained It then summarizes the result It shows that Deprez has been able for a distance to obtain but 45 per cent of the electric force The Engineer further says When the amount of force absorbed by the apparatus used to facilitate the recent experiments but not required in the applications to industrial pursuits is added the yield will be nearly 5 per cent The article closes as follows The commission in the name of science and industry warmly congratulate M Deprez on the admirable results which he has obtained "

Thus it is seen that after the use of unlimited money furnished by the Rothschilds under the direct supervision of such an electrician as Deprez and under the inspection of 38 scientists less than 45 per cent of the electricity is made available where the electricity is generated at a distance from the place of its use In addition account must be taken of the great cost of constructing the long and expensive lines for keeping them in repair and safe from accidents and interference Practically so much more than 50 per cent of the electricity is lost in transmission over long distances that it is not feasible At the same time water as a power is much cheaper than steam It is the old problem of Mahomet and the mountain And long since I recognized that as so much of the electricity would be lost by using water power a long distance off that it was necessary to bring the water to Portland and use it here A part of my contemplated plans in bringing Bull Run water to Portland was that it should have sufficient pressure and I could use the surplus water for operating water engines which in their turn would run dynamos to furnish electricity for incandescent lamps

With this object in view and knowing there were no water engines made which would successfully do the work required I invented after long work and considerable expense a water engine which is a complete success and for which I will in a few days receive the patent With this engine in use Portland [illegible] and will be economically lighted with incandescent electric lamps

I know it is disputed as to who has the right to the water of Bull Run river but it is not necessary to discuss that question in this letter Bull Run water will be in Portland very soon That is settled either by the water committee or [illegible] and it will be brought by me as a private enterprise When it comes in connection with my water motor the city will be lighted by incandescent electric lights This will be for both public and private lighting It will be such a light that [illegible] [illegible] Any system of lighting which ignores these facts will be [illegible]

By the engine and the incandescent electric system by which the whole of Portland may be lighted I am willing to take my chances on the water As it is hardly possible to have Bull Run water in operation in Portland within the two years specified in the ordinance now before the council I submit this question Would it not be wise to continue for that length of time the arc lights with my associates which gives the city very great advantages over present lighting and allows us to keep them up from embracing all at once [illegible] bringing in of Bull Run water In addition the water in [illegible] going on with their [illegible] and the city by this contract will have the advantage of electric lighting instead of [illegible] until next May when present contract expires

I am willing to demonstrate to the council by lighting the streets with incandescent lamps Such a trial must of necessity be crude as I will be compelled to light Edison lamps from a Weston dynamo And instead of showing single lamps of 16-candle power I shall be compelled to show in some places two of lower lamps from the same lamp post Of course this will be merely on the trial Should I obtain the contract I will fulfill its terms to the letter

I do not believe it possible to light all of the streets of Portland by arc lights within the financial ability of the city That I am honest in this expression you may conclude from the fact that the U S Electric Lighting and Power company of which I am a stockholder and the manager now have in use a large arc light plant of unquestioned superiority with which I can do all that is possible to be done with an arc light system And that any contract with the city will require an outlay of nearly $20 000

I have already painted a screen and three plaques
A whole set of dishes and two little racks
A stand for umbrellas—
A lovely one too
With a ground of sienna
And bands of light blue
And cat tails a dozen so straight and erect
Growing up all around with artistic effect
There are other things too which I can't stop to tell

The Railroad Hog Vanquished

Detroit Free Press

The average railroad traveller can detect the average railroad hog at one glance as he passes down the aisle of the car As a train stopped at Jackson the other day half a dozen fresh passengers detected one of the animals in one of the coaches, and five of them stood up rather than tackle him The sixth one halted at the seat removed a satchel from the end to the floor and crowded in without a word The hog was indignant but instead of protesting by word of mouth he drew the stopper from a phial of musk and poured a liberal quantity on the coat sleeve next to the intruder It was a corker and the passengers in front and behind were led to believe that something had busted but the intruder was equal to the occasion He produced a raw onion from his pocket and after calmly devouring it, he half turned in his seat to bring his breath to bear on the hog and in ten minutes he had the seat to himself

DR. JOHN BULL'S

FEVER and AGUE

Or CHILLS and FEVER,

AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.
